

WHERE NORTH ARTERIAL WOULD CROSS MAIN ST. — After coming north over the Mohawk River, the proposed arterial would follow the east side of Railroad St. to East Main St. This would necessitate removal of three structures, including the S. S. Kresge building. The cost of this particular right of way would undoubtedly be heaviest of any point along the proposed routes. Coming into Church St., from which this photo was taken, the arterial would carry northbound traffic.